Jim Chanos Bio:

Jim Chanos is an American hedge fund manager, and is president and founder of Kynikos Associates, a New York City investment company that is focused on short selling.

Kynikos Associates provides investment management services for both domestic and offshore clients. Through investment partnerships, corporations and managed accounts, both domestic and offshore, Kynikos Associates maintains a portfolio of overpriced securities for clients.

Kynikos Associates, Ltd., through the domestic Ursus Partners fund as well as Ursus International, Ltd. for international clients, provides the investment strategy of profiting from unhedged short selling of overvalued securities. Jim also manages the fully hedged Beta Hedge and Beta Hedge International funds for domestic and offshore investors. Both the Ursus and Beta Hedge fund families profit from the unusually high alphas found on the short side of the U.S. equity market.

Born and raised in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Jim graduated from Yale University in 1980 and presently lives in New York. Between graduation and starting his own firm, Jim gained financial experience as an analyst with Paine Webber, Gilford Securities and Deutsche Bank where his specialty was finding and evaluating overpriced securities.

Jim, who is known in the financial world as the king of short-selling, was a script advisor to Oliver Stone for the movie Wall Street 2 and was also given a cameo in the film.

Jim is divorced but is currently dating Crystal Connors.

Bio: Tim Zagat is the Co-founder, Co-chair and Chief Executive Officer of Zagat Survey, the world's leading provider of consumer survey-based dining, travel and leisure information. The Zagat Survey was launched in 1979 as a hobby by Tim and his wife Nina, who started to rate restaurants through surveys. The Survey became so popular that it rapidly developed into a full-time publishing enterprise. Following their initial success in New York City, the Zagats expanded their concept in the mid-1980's to cover dining scenes in other markets, later adding hotels, resorts, spas, airlines, car rental agencies, shopping, nightlife, golf courses, and most recently, movies.

In 2000, the Zagats were recognized as Entrepreneurs of the Year by both Ernst & Young and Harvard Business School, and were inducted into NYU's Entrepreneurship Hall of Fame in 2001. In the spring of 2002, Tim resigned as chairman of NYC & Company, the official marketing, promotion and tourism arm of New York City, a position he held for over three years; a director of the NYC Partnership and Chamber of Commerce; and a board member and vice president of Careers in Culinary Arts Program (C-CAP). In addition, Tim has served in various other civic, cultural and charitable capacities over the years. Tim earned an LLB from Yale Law School in 1966 and a B.A. from Harvard College in 1961. The Zagats have been married since 1965 and have two adult sons, Ted and John.
